

Telecoms & MSP billing made easy

Intelligent Billing from PRD Technologies makes your billing the most efficient it can be, using customer and product data to create detailed reports and analytics to a diverse range of sectors with data processing and billing requirements, including Telecoms & MSPs from a single platform.

Our feature-rich platform offers near unlimited scalability with the ability to flex and grow with your business from start-ups to enterprise level requirements.

Telecoms

Best of breed billing

Managed Service Providers

Eliminate Azure, Adobe, Microsoft licencing/NCE billing challenges

Cloud Solution Providers

Channel IT and Technology Distributors

Managed Print Services

Software Product of the Year winner for Print IT

Internet Service Providers

Completely automated fibre broadband billing

Other Sectors

EV, Advertising per click billing, utilities, gaming, hotels and more...

| Features                                | Benefits                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
|-----------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Flexible &amp; converged billing | Suitable for Telecoms, Cloud Solution Providers, Managed Service Providers on separate and converged platforms                                                                                                                            |
| Custom features and solutions    | Customised solutions to meet your specific needs                                                                                                                                                                                          |
| Business Analytics and Reporting | Standard and custom reports including revenue assurance, management and financial reports, customer and product performance, business and trend insights, validations and reconciliation reports to ensure complete and accurate billing. |
| Consumption and usage rating     | Any variable billing including packages and bundles, plus over usage. Enables you to create complex products to stay ahead of your competitors                                                                                            |
| International                    | Expand into new markets with multi-currency and multi-lingual billing. International tax and legislation, including USA                                                                                                                   |
| Automations                      | Reduce time spent on billing with automated processes, reducing debtor days and manual billing errors                                                                                                                                     |
| Integrations                     | Seamlessly exchange data between your third-party platforms and data sources with sophisticated APIs and bespoke integration functionality                                                                                                |
| Customer care and support        | Highest of standards, includes onboarding and training                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| Any sectors                      | Telecoms, Cloud Services (Azure etc.), ISP/fibre broadband, utilities and metering, cloud usage, gaming studios, virtual worlds, electric vehicle charging and much more                                                                  |

Product Comparison Table

| Features                                                           | Essential | Advanced | Pro | Enterprise |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------|----------|-----|------------|
| Onboarding &amp; Support                                    |           |          |     |            |
| Advanced migration processes                                       |           | ✓        | ✓   | ✓          |
| 10 days free onboarding (excludes Development)                     |           | ✓        | ✓   | ✓          |
| Initial onboarding training / ad-hoc training available on request | ✓         | ✓        | ✓   | ✓          |
| Support – including help desk ticketing system                     | ✓         | ✓        | ✓   | ✓          |
| Dedicated Technical Architect                                      |           |          | ✓   | ✓          |
| Web Based User Portal                                       |           |          |     |            |
| End customer portal                                                | ✓         | ✓        | ✓   | ✓          |
| Branded end customer portal                                        |           | ✓        | ✓   | ✓          |
| Multi access and set different user levels                         |           | ✓        | ✓   | ✓          |
| Audit trails                                                       |           |          | ✓   | ✓          |
| System Functionality                                        |           |          |     |            |
| Exports to accounting, CRM and banking systems                     | ✓         | ✓        | ✓   | ✓          |
| CDR processing and rating                                          | ✓         | ✓        | ✓   | ✓          |
| Auto collection of any data                                        |           | ✓        | ✓   | ✓          |
| Daily or near real time file collection and processes              |           |          | ✓   | ✓          |
| Bespoke integrations/APIs with your third-party systems            |           |          | ✓   | ✓          |
| Highly scalable – grows with your business                         |           |          | ✓   | ✓          |
| White labelling / Billing on Behalf of                             |           |          | ✓   | ✓          |
| Billing and Invoicing                                       |           |          |     |            |
| Single pane of glass (multi-company and multi-subsidiary billing)  |           |          | ✓   | ✓          |
| Choice of default invoice style                                    | ✓         | ✓        | ✓   | ✓          |
| Multiple invoice groups                                            |           | ✓        | ✓   | ✓          |
| Custom invoice styles, multiple formats                            |           | ✓        | ✓   | ✓          |
| Site billing                                                       | ✓         | ✓        | ✓   | ✓          |
| Pro-rata billing automation                                        | ✓         | ✓        | ✓   | ✓          |
| Multi-lingual and multi-currency invoicing                         |           |          | ✓   | ✓          |
| Multi-hierarchical billing                                         |           |          | ✓   | ✓          |
| Any data billing                                                   |           | ✓        | ✓   | ✓          |
| Business Intelligence and Reporting                         |           |          |     |            |
| Feature rich dashboards                                            | ✓         | ✓        | ✓   | ✓          |
| Management and financial reporting                                 | ✓         | ✓        | ✓   | ✓          |
| Revenue assurance reporting                                        | ✓         | ✓        | ✓   | ✓          |
| Bespoke business intelligence reporting                            |           |          | ✓   | ✓          |
| Billing and fraud alerts                                           |           |          | ✓   | ✓          |

Contact us today to book a demo and discuss your individual business needs [01256 806832](tel:01256 806832) www.intelligentbilling.com